September 2nd

Carolyn Thorn is a musical enigma of sorts. Carolyn is a Board Certified Music Therapist. Trained classically in voice at Temple University and graduated in Music Therapy, she also plays guitar, piano, violin, ukulele, and banjo. Carolyn's first studio recorded EP is called "Own Head," and can be found on Spotify and iTunes. Carolyn is currently recording a 5 track album with Turtle Studios.

October 7th

"Members of the Rancocas Valley Singers, a Burlington County based vocal ensemble, present a program of American pop, show tunes, and a cappella works. The group is directed by our very own Deb Vanneman."

November 4th

Jessica Graae blends her folk-rock style and classical training to create haunting, soulful songs. Her "evocative, lush, and exquisite" vocals are accompanied by "elegant and impressive guitar playing". Voted WSTW's "Best Female Solo Artist" in the 10th Annual Hometown Heroes Homey Awards, Jessica celebrated the release of her second album "Sea Dream" with a release show at World Café Live in Philadelphia. She has performed live on Joltin' Joe's Radio Nowhere, Gene Shay's Folk Show (WXPN), Graffiti Radio, WCHE's SoundStage and WSTW's Hometown Heroes. In September 2016, she will play the Haverford Music Festival, and has played the Gettysburg Rocks, Dewey Beach, Bordentown, Launch, Elm City and Ladybug Festivals. Jessica is a 2013 Philadelphia Folk Factory contest winner and a finalist in the 2012 and 2014 Delmarva Folk Hero contests.

Operation Collection!

Bread of Life Food Pantry is loving our donations, let's keep it up! Look for notifications on our Facebook page of what the pantry needs or simply donate what you can. You can now donate food to the pantry at Borough Hall, M-F 8:30-4:30. The basket is located right inside the main doors. If you are headed to the Community Center you can bring your donations there as well, the bucket is in the lobby.

Flags The Community Center has teamed up with the Borough of Palmyra and the Girl Scouts to help collect used or damaged flags for proper disposal. Please bring your flags to the lobby of Borough Hall M-F, 8:30-4:30PM or to the lobby of the Community Center. Both locations have marked baskets for receiving flags.
